

CAPACITY-BUILDING FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI – KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

MAY 20, 2010

PRESENTED BY

the Institute for Youth Development

The Institute for Youth Development (IYD), through a cooperative agreement with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Division of Adolescent and School Health (CDC/DASH) is pleased to announce a capacity-building workshop for organizations that serve youth, parents, and families. The goal of this workshop is to build the capacity of youth-serving organizations to implement positive youth development efforts to help adolescents obtain brighter futures.

Workshop Information

IYD will train workshop participants in four areas of capacity-building:

- 1) Building partnerships with other youth serving organizations;
- 2) Reviewing different models of positive youth development strategies;
- 3) Understanding and using logic models to plan your program, view its progress, and identify strategies to achieve future goals; and
- 4) Communicating program success stories to advocate and generate awareness of your organization's presence in the community and to expand financial and program resources.

Note: Continuing Education Units (CEUs) will be offered through George Mason University
